Dr. L. D. Balkhande College of Arts & Commerce, Pauni, Dist. Bhandara Alumni Association organized the one day webinar on the topic 'Gender Equality Regarding Law' on 1st June, 2021. The webinar virtually inaugurated by the hands of Dr. S. M. Nandagawali, Officiating principal, and Prof. Nandkishor Singade, vice-principal, the chief guest Adv. Devkumar Gowardhan, Legal Practitioner, High Court & District Court Nagpur, and Dr. J. K. Jangale, and Mr. S. R. Ramteke were present on this occasion.

The president of the webinar Dr. S. M. Nandagawali, Officiating principal of the college said that Inequality and discrimination lie in the mindset the people that may be lessen with help of law. Hence everyone finds their solution in the Indian Constitution opined in his presidential address. The chief guest, offered the best wishes to the students on this occasion. The chief guest, Adv. Devkumar Gowardhan, Legal Practitioner, High Court & District Court Nagpur, addressed virtually to the gathering the important role of Indian Constitution and Judiciary. Gender inequality affects everyone, be it children, women, transgenders or even men. Gender equality is a human right but there seems to be a certain gap in access to various opportunities as well as the decision making power for women and men. Women's empowerment is an important aspect of bringing gender equality.

Mr. S. R. Ramteke, President, Alumni Association of the college delivered introductory note on the webinar. Dr. J. K. Jangale, Secretary, Alumni Association compared the session and Mr. G. R. Meshram, Treasurer, Alumni Association, proposed the vote of thanks of the virtual gathering.

Alumni Association Members and teaching, non teaching staff and students of the college joined the programme and made the one day webinar successful.
