

Two Days Interdisciplinary National e-Conference

On The Impact of Digitization on Education & Educational Policies, Social Media, Human Behaviour and Social Interaction during COVID-19

About the College:

The Pravarsen Shikshan Sanstha, Nagpur was established in 1982. The College was established by the name P. S. S. Arts and Commerce College, in Pauni, Dist. Bhandara by the sincere attempts and hard works of Honourable Dr. L.D. Balkhande Sir (Founder Secretary) in 1983. The College has been renamed after him as Dr. L. D. Balkhande College of Arts & Commerce, Pauni in 2015. In the beginning, P. S. S. Arts and Commerce College was the only Senior College in Pauni or its Surrounding. In such critical situation, Dr. L. D. Balkhande Sir has done the herculean task to establish the senior college in the remote area and tried to develop the minds of the youths with education. After which number of boys and girls got a chance to take education and flourish their own future. In short, this small plant of education turned into a huge shape of Tree.

The College faced a lot of problems and difficulties at the initial stage but with the great efforts of our patron Hon'ble late Dr. L. D. Balkhande Sir, made it easy to progress further. At the beginning, the college doesn't own its building; in such critical condition, Sir has started the College in Shri. Mundle's building on rent. The college has, initially, started with three faculties i.e. Arts, Science and Commerce but due to some technical problems Science faculty was closed. Before the opening of the college in Pauni, a number of boys and girls visited Brahmपुरi, Bhandara, Chandrapur and Nagpur for their higher education. But it was inconvenient for the poor and backward sections of the society to take admission in above cities. Especially, Girls students were not allowed to go outside for higher education. Hence, they have to leave their education. Therefore, Sir knew the fact and made it more convenient for girl students to take their higher education in Pauni. The establishment of P. S. S. College in Pauni makes it easy to build-up the educational standard and overall personality of the students. The college is in process of progress right from the
